Headline:
Dry with some sunshine on Friday.

Today:
Any fog patches clearing, then a dry day with some good spells of sunshine especially in the morning. Some cloud bubbling up in the afternoon. A bit milder again, with a moderate south to southwesterly breeze. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud breaking to allow some clear spells this evening. Cloud and occasional rain will then cross from the west overnight, with the northwest clearing again by morning. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Saturday:
A cloudy start perhaps with a little rain in east, but sunnier skies already into the northwest will develop more widely by the afternoon. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
It will be a fine settled spell of weather into the start of next week with good spells of sunshine. Perhaps some early fog patches and low cloud.
